In Memory of Becky Snell

Rebecca “Becky” Snell, a special friend to Texas dressage and ADA, passed away recently. Becky was instrumental to the development of dressage in Texas. She served on the board of the Texas Dressage Society from 1974 to 1981 as Treasurer and then President in 1981 when TDS was reorganized as Alamo Dressage Association. She served ADA as Yearbook Editor, Secretary and President.

Becky co-managed the first SWDC Championship in 1988 and served as organizer, manager, and secretary of over 15 recognized competitions beginning in 1979. Becky was USDF Region 9 Director from 1990- 1995 and Region 9 Horseperson of the year in 1993.

Becky had a lifetime love of horses, especially Arabian horses. She and her husband, Dillon, owned a ranch in Boerne, Texas she lovingly called “Sunnybrook”. She managed, owned and operated Ranchmart, a tack store from 1978-1989 in San Antonio, Texas. She was an active rider beginning in 1940. Her horses, Conflagration and Ora Intriga won many USDF, AHSA and IAHA awards. In 2007, Becky and her horse, Atraysa Santi, became members of the Dressage Foundation’s Century Club which recognizes dressage riders and horses whose combined age totals 100 years or more.

Becky is survived by her husband, Dillon, three children and five grandchildren and many friends who were fortunate enough to know her. She will be dearly missed.
